

HELPING OUR COMMUNITIES
GROW TRUE, STRONG AND FREE.

The Fleury family name actually has roots in early Canadian pioneer history, when three Fleury brothers arrived in New France (now Québec) in 1665. Many generations later, Joseph Fleury Jr. launched an agricultural implement manufacturing enterprise in 1859 that became J. Fleury's Sons Co., Ltd. The firm manufactured 22 models of single-furrow walking plows; the Fleury No. 21 plow was sold Canada-wide and helped earn Joseph Jr. a place in the Ontario Agricultural Hall of Fame.
